

A Great Sweep Out Sale

Consisting of Men's, Women's, Boys', Misses' and Children's Shoes. Also Men's Hats, Men's Furnishings and many other articles of wear carried in our large and complete lines of merchandise. We carry the Biggest and Best lines in this county, such as Manhattan Shirts, Stetson Hats and Stacy and Adams Shoes, besides others of the leading cheaper brands of Shirts, Hats and Shoes

COME AND BRING YOUR FRIENDS AND ENJOY THE FEAST OF BARGAINS THAT ARE YOURS

Our Store will be closed Friday, July 31st to arrange for this sale

Sale Begins Saturday, Aug. 1, and Continues 10 Days

Great Reduction on Stetson Felt Hats

Nothing will be Charged at this sale except at regular prices. So Bring Your Money With You

Men's Shirts	Men's Underwear	Pajamas and Night Shirts
$1.50 Manhattan Shirts.....$1.20	$2.00 Union and Two Piece.....$1.45	$2.00 Pajamas.....$1.45
2.00 " " ".....1.45	1.75 " " ".....1.35	1.50 " " ".....1.20
2.50 " " ".....1.95	1.50 " " ".....1.20	1.00 " " "......80
3.50 " " ".....2.75	1.00 " " "......80	1.00 Night Shirts......80
1.50 Wilson Bros. Shirts.....1.20	.50 " " "......35	.50 " " "......40
1.00 " " "......80

Men's Low Shoes

$6.00 Men's Low Shoes	$4.75
5.00 " " "	3.85
4.00 " " "	3.15
3.50 " " "	2.75
3.00 " " "	2.35

Womens Low Shoes and Slippers

$5.00 Low Shoes and Slippers	$3.85
4.00 " " "	3.15
3.50 " " "	2.75
3.00 " " "	2.35
2.50 " " "	1.95

Misses and Childrens Low Shoes and Slippers

$3.00 Low Shoes and Slippers	$2.35
2.50 " " "	1.95
2.00 " " "	1.65
1.75 " " "	1.45
1.50 " " "	1.20

Any $2, $2.50 and $3 Hopkins Straw Hat $1.00

See our Bargain Counters Filled With Bargain Shoes and Slippers, $1.00 pair

REMEMBER DATE OF SALE --- SATURDAY, AUGUST 1ST

RICE and ARNOLD

THE ONE PRICE HOUSE

WEST MAIN STREET

TELEPHONE 118

RICHMOND, KY

The Richmond Climax.

Published Every Wednesday
THECLIMAX PRINTING CO
(Incorporated.)

A. D. Miller, Pres. W. G. White, Sec. & Treas.
W. G. White, Editor
B. D. Gordon, Editor
Member of
KENTUCKY PRESS ASSOCIATION and
EIGHTH DISTRICT PUBLISHERS LEAGUE.

PRICE $1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE

JULY 29, 1914

PERSONALS.

Miss Janie Bobbitt is home from Richmond Normal School.—Somerset Journal.

Mr. Thompson Burnam, of Richmond, is with Vincent Bartlett.—Anderson News.

Mrs. Talt S. Todd and Mrs. James A. Moore are enjoying a stay at Swango Springs.

Miss Lester Schon, of Los Angeles, California, is the attractive guest of Miss Madge Burnam.

Mrs. James W. Smith left last week for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. Julian Van Winkle, in Louisville.

Miss Emma Burcher has returned from a visit to friends in Richmond.—Paint Lick Cor. Central Record.

Miss Phyllis Fletcher has returned to her home in Louisville, after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Wooten.

Miss Mary Elmore, of Lancaster, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dunlap Blanton at her home on Second street.

Miss Russell Stouffer entertained at Five Hundred on Thursday morning for her guest, Mr. Lawrence Sneed, of Virginia.

Miss Naomi Ballew entertained on Friday afternoon at her home at Terrill, for Mrs. Raymond Jett, who has recently moved into that neighborhood.

Mr. L. P. Spears, of New York, and Mrs. R. F. Spears, of Lexington, are the guests of Mesdames R. E. Turley, Joe Chensault and T. T. Covington.

Mrs. Mary McFee and daughter, of Irvine, passed through Richmond last week en route to Garrard county to visit her son, Mr. Henry McFee.

Mrs. Stephen D. Parrish left Monday morning for a two weeks' stay at Swango Springs. She was accompanied by Mrs. T. W. Davis, of Campbellsville.

Misses Nannie Ballard and Odie Mason and Messrs. Hockaday and Charley Dunn motored in Miss Ballard's auto to the Mt. Sterling Fair last Thursday.

Mrs. Lyman Parrish has returned to her home in Richmond. Mrs. C. G. Crooks is visiting her mother, Mrs. Crowe, in Richmond.—Danville Messenger.

Miss Belle Bennett and Misses Mary and Isabelle Bennett, of this city, Mrs. T. J. Smith, of Frankfort, and Miss Sue Bennett, of Lexington, left last week for a two weeks' stay at Lake Chautauqua, New York.

Mr. B. D. Gordon, of the Climax, and Mrs. Gordon spent Sunday with friends in Nicholasville. Little Miss Frances Gordon remained to visit her grandmother, aunt and other relatives.

Mrs. Sallie Yates McKee, who last week underwent a serious operation at the Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington, is greatly improved her many friends in this community will be glad to learn.

Mrs. Nancy Royce Edwards, of Richmond, is the guest of Mrs. Clyde Keller, on Main street. Mrs. Edwards has recently returned from Louisiana, where she spent the winter with relatives.—Kentuckian-Citizen.

Misses Florence and Elizabeth Duncan, of Lawrenceburg, and Miss Martha Tindler, of Lancaster, are the guests of Miss Elizabeth Hagan at her home in Burnamwood. Miss Hagan entertained informally at dancing on Thursday evening for her guests.

Miss Margaret Tipton, of Georgetown, is visiting Miss Myrtle Gott.

Mrs. Shirley Whitaker visited her parents at Silver Creek last week.

Mr. R. S. Crowe, of Beattyville, is visiting his mother on High street.

Miss Mary Allen Deatherage is spending the week with Miss Mary Boggs at Waco.

State Bank Examiner, Burton Faris, was in town last week on official business.

Mrs. G. T. Grinstead is at home from a Danville hospital much improved in health.

Dr. and Mrs. Phelps, of Grand Junction, Colorado, are visiting Mrs. W. L. Collins.

Rev. D. Clay Lilly, of Nashville, was the guest of his brother, Attorney G. E. Lilly Sunday.

Miss Kate Richmond, of Virginia, has been the guest of Miss Lelia Beatty the past week.

Miss Anne Cohen is spending this week with friends in Lexington and Nicholasville.

Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Crabbe left this week for a month's stay Battle Creek, Michigan.

Mrs. Berry Tudor spent last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Barnes, at Cottonburg.

Prof. and Mrs. G. D. Smith left this week to spend the remainder of the summer in Conway.

Little Miss Leon Fife, of Winchester, has been spending the week-end with Mrs. Emma Fife.

Miss Austin Lilly left last week for a two weeks' visit with relatives in Montreat, North Carolina.

Mrs. Mary Roark and Miss Kathleen Roark are visiting Messrs. Raymond and Eugene Roark at Madison, Wis.

Miss Miree McDougle is spending a month visiting friends and relatives in West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana.

Mrs. Hallie Tudor Vaughn, of Irvine, was yesterday a visitor to our city. She was accompanied by her son, John Lewis Vaughn.

Miss Julia White entertained at Nullo very informally on Tuesday morning for Miss Lester Schon, of California, the guest of Miss Madge Burnam.

Miss Mollie Fife leaves this week for Detroit, where she will spend a week, after which she will visit Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Clay at Ann Arbor, Mich.

Misses Curtis McKinney, Curraleen Smith, Bessie Dudley, Mary Traynor and Emma Hendren have returned from a delightful visit to Mrs. English at Ida May.

Mr. and Mrs. Jephtha D. Chensault, Mrs. Smith Olden, and Messrs. Edwin Cobb and Harry E. Hanger, Jr., are enjoying the mineral waters and beautiful scenery at Oil Springs, Clark county.

Several delightful Alhambra parties were given last week by Mrs. R. C. Stockton, Mrs. E. L. Middleton and Miss Mollie Fife for Miss Harris, the guest of Mrs. D. M. Chensault.

Miss Nannie Mae Davidson entertained quite a number of friends with a theatre party Monday evening in honor of Miss Mary Louise Deatherage and her attractive house party.

Mrs. J. Hale Dean was hostess of a lovely Nullo party Friday afternoon for Miss Schon, of California, the guest of Miss Madge Burnam, and Mrs. James Wilson, of Louisville, the guest of Mr. T. S. Burnam.

Mrs. W. F. Francis, of Columbia, S. C., is visiting her brother, Mr. Joe T. Jones and other relatives and friends in this city, where she formerly lived before going South.

Mrs. Hanly Nippert and little daughter, of Cincinnati, have been the recent guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Dykes, having been called here by the death of her grandmother, Mrs. Margaret Lackey.

Mr. Bryan, of Parkersburg, W. Va., is expected today for a ten days' visit to Mr. William Burnam, on the Summit. They were classmates last year at Kiski Academy, Saltsburg, Pa., and became fast friends.

Mr. James Howard, the Richmond representative of the International Harvester Co., left yesterday for a business trip to West Liberty and other points in the eastern part of the State. He will be absent about a week.

Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington, are the attractive guests of Miss Mary Louise Deatherage. Quite a number of pretty parties are planned in honor of Miss Deatherage and her guests for the week.

Miss Mattie Elder most charmingly entertained last Thursday evening with a dance at her home on East Main street in compliment to her house guests, Miss Deatherage, and Miss Elsie, of Paris. About sixty responded to her invitation.

Miss Jeanette Pates was hostess of a beautiful Five Hundred party on Friday afternoon for Miss Mary Louise Deatherage and her guests, the Misses Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

One of the prettiest parties of the summer was the Five Hundred Porch party given by Miss Hattie Lee Million at her beautiful new home on West Main, Saturday morning. The porch and home were lovely in plants and flowers and after the games a delicious two course luncheon was served. The first prize a bottle of "Gardenele" perfume was won by Miss Margaret Covington making the highest score, the guest prize, a box of "Boquet Jeanice" powder to Miss Musette Veach and the consolation, a bottle of toilet water, to Miss Sarah Coy. The hours were delightful and informal and those who enjoyed Miss Millions hospitality were: Misses Elizabeth Turley, Ellen Miller, Eleanor Hagan, Elizabeth Hagan, Margaret and Tommie Cole Covington, Elizabeth Wagers, Mary Allen Deatherage, Nancy Haden, Johnnie Azbill, Cynthia Davis, Duncan Foster, Russell White, Elsie Buchanan, Musette Veach, Mary Clugston, Rose Clugston, of Lexington, Jeanette Pates, Mary Wagers, Mary Louise Deatherage, Florence and Elizabeth Duncan, of Lawrenceburg, and Martha Tindler, of Lancaster.

Bradley's Widow Gets $7,500.

In the General Deficiency Bill, which was reported to the Senate, an allowance of $7,500 is made to Mrs. Margaret D. Bradley, which is his salary for one year, and is paid to her in accordance with a custom prevailing in the Senate. Clerks, stenographers, etc., under Senator Bradley are to receive sixty days pay.

Miss Dorothy Perry entertained the following young people with an Alhambra party on Monday evening to meet her guests, the Misses Duncan, of Lawrenceburg; Misses Eleanor and Elizabeth Hagan, Florence and Elizabeth Buchanan, Margaret Covington and Elizabeth Burnam, and Messrs. Logan Burnam, Paul Hanger, Neale Bennett, Dudley Bennett, Charles Vaughn, Curtis Bennett and Hart Perry.

Little Miss Willie Bruce Bacon, of Lexington, celebrated her 8th birthday at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. McGuire, on Lancaster avenue. The pleasant event occurred last Saturday afternoon, and the little folks had a most delightful time. Every nook and corner was charmingly decorated and the little hostess acquitted herself in a most creditable manner. Numerous games were indulged in and delightful refreshments were served, consisting of cakes, ices, etc. About twenty enjoyed the festivities which will be a pleasant memory in future years.

Mr. J. N. Benton, a live wire merchant of Irvine, was in Richmond Saturday and paid the Climax a short call. He had been to Cottonburg with his wife and boy, guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Neal, Mrs. Neal and Mrs. Benton being sisters, and was on his way home to Irvine. His little son, one of the handsomest little fellows we have met in a long time and as bright as he is handsome, was with his father. Mr. Benton will remain for a longer visit.

Wednesday evening of last week, Messrs. Frank Devore and Wm. Elder gave a delightful hay ride in compliment to Miss Katherine Enright's guests, Misses O'Neil and Eagleton, of Lexington, and Miss Duvall, of Paris. About forty jolly young folks enjoyed the ride, winding up at the country home with Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Enright on the Barnes

Mill pike, where they were greeted with true old fashioned hospitality and a sumptuous dinner was served, which is entirely needless for us to add, was greatly enjoyed, after which they "tripped the light fantastic" until the "wee sma' hours," and all returned home with light and happy hearts.

Miss Lelia Beatty leaves Tuesday for Virginia.

Mr. Tracy Green left yesterday for Louisville to accept a clerkship with the Seelbach Hotel. The best of good wishes of numerous friends follow him.

Miss Elizabeth Burnam entertained yesterday afternoon with a Five Hundred party in compliment to Miss Madge Burnam's guest, Miss Schon, of San Diego, California. Miss Schon is a beautiful and most charming young woman, the daughter of Miss Daisy Rollins that was, who visited her Burnam relatives here a few years ago. Miss Burnam's entertainment was one of the prettiest of the season as well as one of the most enjoyable, twenty-four of her young friends participating.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

Miss Mary Louise Deatherage gave a pretty card party Thursday afternoon for a number of friends in honor of her guests, Misses Mary and Rose Clugston and Musette Veach, of Lexington. The home on Third street was lovely with plants and garden flowers and the afternoon was charming and informal, and after the game a delicious salad and ice course was served. The guest of honor prize was a pair of silver slipper buckles, the prize for the highest score, a silver collar pin, and the consolation, a beautiful deck of cards. The guests who enjoyed the hospitality were: Misses Elsie Pates, Austin Lilly, Mary Allen Deatherage and Nanov Haden.

MARRIED

James Norton, 22, and Miss Pearl Riddell, 18 years old, both of Rice Station, were married on the 23d.

"I pronounce you man and wife, and what God hath joined together let no man put asunder." These were the familiar yet impressive words spoken by the Rev. F. M. Tindler, of Lancaster, when Miss Alma Scrivner and Prof. D. W. Bridges stood before him at the home of the bride in Burnamwood, at high noon, Saturday, July 25th. The ceremony took place in the presence of only the immediate family of the bride and the Caldwell High School Board. Immediately thereafter the happy couple left for a brief bridal trip to Tennessee, Prof. Bridges' native State, where they will spend several weeks among his relatives and friends. They will return to Richmond in ample time for the opening of Caldwell High School. The bride is a daughter of Mr. Morton Scrivner and is well known and very popular in this city, where she has spent most of her life, indeed all of her young girlhood, and has been for several years one of the efficient teachers in Caldwell High School, of which Prof. Bridges is Superintendent. The Climax extends congratulations.

Handsomest in Town.

We haven't seen it, but from the description given by one who knows, we know it is a beauty. We are talking about Billy Devore's new auto-bus, just purchased from Mr. Field White, and which will appear on our streets within a few days. Mr. White represents the White Motor Co., of Cleveland, and says it is one of the handsomest and most convenient made, worthy of a place on Fifth Avenue or Broadway, New York. It is a 12-passenger machine, cream-colored running gear and royal blue body; handsomely upholstered in leather inside, plate-glass windows, pneumatic tires and other things in harmony, with top arrangement for baggage. Just wait a few days and take a ride in it if you want to know how it feels to be riding in New York, Boston or some other large city of some hundreds of thousands of people.

Strows Show Which Way The Wind Blows.

Below we give a few specimens of what the newspapers in all sections of the State have been saying about Gov. James Bennett McCree within the past few months. We could fill this entire sheet with just such clippings from our exchanges, but prefer not to do so. What the people in all sections of the State are saying and have been thinking would not look very well in print:

If you had the power to do so, would you pledge the office of an old friend away as Governor McCree did?

To any one who doesn't know just how few votes Governor McCree will get in Clark county, it might seem strange why he never stops over in Winchester between trains. He is always welcome to go straight through for the latch string does not hang on the outside for him.

Governor McCree's definition of gratitude is: "I am thankful for what I may receive."

Governor McCree's friends claim the certainty of his election if nominated. We do not know about that, but we are satisfied with the certainty that he will not be nominated.

Governor McCree has his workers beating the bushes in every county, but the majority of voters are tired voting for him and will right the wrong done Mr. Beckham. Governor McCree has had the lion's share of honors; in fact, the Kentucky Democrats have been mighty good to keep him in office all his life. Personally, we are very fond of him, but he is making one too many races. He won't get to first base this time.

The friends of Governor McCree see that he has no chance to be elected and know that a vote for McCree is a half vote for Stanley, so they have decided to vote for Beckham and not throw their vote away. This is the case in Pulaski county, and what few complimentary votes Governor McCree was going to get are now for Beckham.

If Governor McCree is going to be a factor in this race there is no great evidence of it at this time, "June 23."

The campaign for the Democratic nomination appears to be a two-man fight. Governor McCree is a negligible quantity.

The returns likewise appear to make it certain that Governor McCree will be a poor third in the race, as was indicated in the December canvass.

Governor McCree has made no headway.

Governor McCree is an amiable and clever old chap and is willing to run on any side of any question at any time. He ran against Beckham six years ago as the candidate of the whisky interests and liquor trust. Three years ago he was elected Governor on a dry platform, and now the whisky folks, thinking turnabout is fair play, are running him against Beckham again.

The Governor claims he is an old war horse, tried and true. That may be so, but isn't it time to let an old faithful horse rest and turn him out to graze? We think so.

I have a boy old enough to vote and yet I cannot remember the time when McCree was not in office or asking for office. I have voted for him all my life and am tired of it. He ought to be reminded that "there are others."

Gov. McCree has not the most remote possibility of winning the race but if he could transfer his strength he could elect either Beckham or Stanley, as he might choose. We don't believe he is able to dictate where his strength shall go. The Governor has lost his grip.

Business of Importance at

McKEE'S

Dry Goods Store